THE INS AND OUTS OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

The Retiring Senators, the Expectants

On the 4th of March next the term of the following Senators expire: J. A Bayard, of Deleware; Charles R. Buck nlew, of Penn.; Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan; John Conness, of California James Dixon, of Connecticut; James R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin; George F. Ed-Doolittle, of Wisconsin; George F. Ed-munds, of Vermont: F. T. Frelinghyn-sen, of New Jersey; John B. Henderson, of Missonri; Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana; Edvin D. Morgen, of New York; Lot M. Morrill, of Maine, David T. Patterson, of Tennessee; Alexander Ramsey, of Minnesota; Wm. Stewart, of Navada; Charles Sumper, of Missachu-Nevada; Charles Sumner, of Massachu-setts; Thomas W. Tipton, of Nebraska; setts: Thomas W. Tipton, of Nebraska; P. G. Van Winkle, of West Virginia; Benjamin F. Wade, of Ohio; A. S. Welch, of Florida, and Wm. Pinkney Whyte, of Maryland.

Of these twenty-two Senators, only two, so far, have been re-elected, Messas. Edmunds and Sprague, both radicals. In California, Eugene Casserly, conservative, has been elected to succeed Mr. Conness, who is a radical; in Connecticut, Ex Governor Buckingham, radical, has been elected to sucin Connecticut, Ex troverno.
ham, radical, has been elected to sucham, radical, has been elected to such as the ham, radical, has been elected to succeed Mr. Dixon, conservative. Mr. Patterson, of Tennesse, conservative, and son-in-law of President Johnson, will be succeeded by Parson Brownlow. Ohio will exchange Ben Wade, radical, for Judge Allen G. Thurman, conservative, and Maryland, Wm. Pinkney Whyte for William T. Hamilton, both conservatives. The Florida Legislature has elected Abitah Gilbert to sucture has elected Abijah Gilbert to suc-The latter geneman, although he has been repre-enting Florida in the Senate for the lleman, although he has been representing Florida in the Senate for the last six months, has never given up his residence in his own State of Iowa, where he will return, after the 4th of March, to take charge of the State Agricultural College. He is the only carpet-bag Senator who goes out with this Congress.

Bascom interdosed a resolooshen commendin the finanshel policy uv the President, wich we wuz a goin to pass when to our disgust Joe Bigler riz. Ef the cholera wood be quite shoor to take that cuss, I believe the Corners wood be willin to take its chances uv it. But nothin will kill Joseph. He spoke cz follows:

Congress.

The Legislatures of fourteen of the States have yet to fill the vacancies which will occur, the election in all of which will take place in the month of January. The following named Senators will, it is thought, certainly be relected, as there is no serious opposition to them in their respective States: Messrs. Bayard, Chandler, Stewart, Sumner and Tipton. Owing to the adverse fortune of politics, the following Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have, noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have noiens volens, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senators will have noiens wh elected, as there is no serious opposition to them in their respective States: Messrs. Bayard, Chandler, Stewart, Sumner and Tipton. Owing to the adverse fortune of politics, the following Senators will have, noiens volcus, to shake off their feet the dust of the Senate chamber the day that General Grant is inaugurated, the Legislatures of their States being now politically opposed to them—Messrs. Buckalew, Doolittle, Freilinghnysen and Hendricks; of these Frelingbnysen and Hendricks; of these aly one is a radical, Mr. Frelinghuy-m. For Mr. Buckalew's vacant seat sen. For Mr. Buckalew's vacant sent it is thought now that ex-Governor Curtin has the best chance. Mr. Matt. H. Carpenter will very probable step into Mr. Doolittle's shoes, and no one doubts that the Legislature of New Jersey will supply Mr. Freiinghuysen's place with John P. Stockton, who was so wrongfully ousted from his seat in 1865. These are a purples of radius.

1865. There are a number of radica orn by Mr. Hendricks for six years ntestants for the honors so worthily worn by Mr. Hendricks for six years, but the fight has not yet assumed a sufficiently definite shape to indicate the coming man.

In West Virginia it is understood that Mr. Van Winkle will not be a candidate for re-election. The Legislatures of the States represented by Messrs. Henderson, Morgan, Morrill Messrs. Henderson, Morgan, Morrill and Ramssy are in political accord with them, but there is a bitter opposition to them in their own party.

The best informed here say that there is no question about the defeat of Mr. Henderson in Missouri on account of his impeachment record, and that Gen. Carl Schurz has the best chance of being his successor. Mr. Henderson, however, is still full of fight, and refuses to give it up. In New York there is a very influential clique working against Gov. Morgan, whose great argument is that he cannot talk, and that the great State of New York ought not to have a "dummy" in the Senate II was this same cry which killed off Judge Harris a few years ago, and se

Judge Harris a few years ago, and secured the election of a "talting iman," (too much so.) Roseoc Conkling, in his place. But the Morgan combination is wealthy and powerful, and his friends here are ready to bet that ne will yet win: In Maine, Mr. Morrill will have to encounter Vice-President Hamlin, who is a forman worthy of his steel. The odds here are two to one on Hamlin.

The most stubbern contest of all, though, will probably be in Minnesofa. Here the Donnelly and Wilkinson cliques will dispute every luch with Mr. Ramsey. Donhelly is as obstinate as a mule and as tengious as a bull-dog. Failing last full to receive the Radical nomination for the House, he Radical nomination for the House, he for thus makin my way easy."

"Well then—how about the interest?" yelled Bascom, very much excited. "Why, hevin't I paid it reglerly, and don't I perpose to keep payin it?, replied Josef. "Kin anything be fairer? You hed better take my propesishen or I may possibly repoodiate altogether. The coadior class musa't bear too heavy onto the debtor class. There is a limit beyond which we won't be drove." To-wunst ther wuz a excitement in the house. Deacon Pogram swore that Bascom shood give up a note wich he held unto him, and Isaker Gayitt, who wuz also in debt, fell onto Bigler's neck in a delirinm uv joy at this happy release from his troubles.

"Thank the Lord!" sed the Deekin for thus makin my way easy." Judge Harris a few years ago, and

Mr. Ramsey. Donnelly is as obstinate as a mule and as tenecious as a bulldog. Failing last fail to receive the Radical nomination for the House, he ran as an independent candidate, and was thus the means of electing a Democrat. He has no hopes of securing the Senatorship himself, but only desires to defeat Ramsey even at the expense of getting a Democrat in. Mr. Wilkinson has been elected to the next House, but he has been in the Senate once before, and would prefer to return there, and being an adroit politician, his friends have great hope of his success. That Mr. Ramsey will have a tough time in getting back looks very likely, but he it full of confidence, and those who know what an accomplished wireworker he is, think he will be hard to beat. During the Taylor campaign he was Chairman of the Whig State Committee of Pennsylvania, and General Taylor recognized his services by sending him out to Minnesota Territory as Governor and Indian Agent, and he has since filled every position of profit or consequence in the gift of the State.
